Dear Harold,

Thank you so much for your long and fascinating letter. It brings back a time that is so completely gone that only wisps of memory survive. So it goes in this country, where the nation's memory is never much longer than twenty-four hours.

Both my sister and her husband have passed away; he eleven years ago and she a year later. But good of you to mention them.

Thank you again for your long and thoughtful letter.

Sincerely,

Howard Fast
